

MEET THE TEAM

The Case Central team applies their real industry experience to deliver informed solutions for you so you can better serve your clients. And it truly is a team. Here's everyone that's working for you at Case Central.

David Johnson, CFP®
Director of Case Central

David has worked in the financial services industry for nearly two decades, with a broad background in investments, annuities, insurance, mortgage and tax. A bulk of his time in the field was spent researching investment and insurance options, analyzing financial plans and providing recommendations to his clients.
